Re: Daniele vs Consorzio

Dear Michael:

I received your letter of January 13, 2005. Daniele cannot agree to the word "ham" as per your letter and proposal. It is very difficult to include the word "ham" and exclude other products with ham ingredients since new products in the future may include ham.

Perhaps we could define prosciutto as "cured dry ham" (English definition) or "prosciutto crudo" (Italian definition).

Your client should only be concerned with prosciutto. We have a difference of opinion as to Stuart Benson, Esq. including the word "ham" in the agreement without the knowledge of Mr. Dukcevich.

Notwithstanding, we are attempting in good faith to settle this matter and respond to your proposed agreement. Needless to say, you and I can agree that proposals, offers of settlement, etc. are not admissible and constitute offers of settlement.

We cannot agree to a consent judgment since I do not want an agreement included in a court order.

Any agreement signed by the parties should have a certificate of authority from the Board of Directors. The president of Daniele International, Inc. is Stefano Dukcevich. He will sign the agreement, I will witness the agreement and you will receive a certificate with a duly authorized resolution to enter into the agreement.

I also suggest that the parties sign mutual releases except for the current agreement and specifically mutual releases in relation to the agreement that was signed on or about August 6, 2003. I am now responding to each of the items in my original proposal to you with your modifications.

1. No dispute. Please note that I changed the word "work" to "word."

2. No dispute.

3. Apparently your proposal has eliminated Daniele's right to use the Daniele corporate name or the Daniele word or logo trademark on all products sold outside of the United States. My original proposal must stand, but will except Europe.

4. As stated above, we cannot utilize the word "ham." In addition, I am confused on your revision of paragraph 4. Our proposal No. 4 states that we can use the word Daniele and the logo trademark but not use the word prosciutto in the logo trademark. However, we must place the name "prosciutto" in the middle of the package.

   For example, you and I have discussed that our client can use Daniele, Inc., Daniele, Inc. in the logo or any other name in the logo except the name "prosciutto."

5. No dispute.

6. No dispute.

7. Although this matter is moot, we must have a date.

8. No dispute.

9. No dispute.

10. Although you did not change paragraph 10, we should eliminate the word "cooperation."

11. If we can reach an agreement, I will recommend $40,000 (forty thousand dollars).

12. As noted, $30,000 could change to $40,000. Perhaps we could add mutual releases to this paragraph.

13. No dispute.

14. No dispute.

I would suggest a confidentiality agreement be included in the agreement as well as a paragraph that the parties have consulted with counsel. Please review and advise.

Very truly yours,

AGREEMENT

This agreement is between Daniele International, Inc., of Davis Drive, P.O. Box 106, Pascoag, Rhode Island 02859-0106, referred to herein as "Daniele," and the Consorzio del Prosciutto di San Daniele, of Via Umberto I, 33038 San Daniele del Friuli (UD), Italy, referred to herein as "the Consorzio." The agreement is effective on the last date signed by the parties.

This agreement replaces and supersedes the agreement executed by or on behalf of the parties dated August 6, 2003.

The parties wish to resolve their differences concerning their respective trademarks and trade names, and to use their respective marks and names in harmony, with each giving full respect to the rights and privileges of the other, and to prevent confusion in the minds of customers regarding the identification and geographical location of the two parties goods.

The parties also wish to resolve the opposition by the Consorzio to the application of Daniele for federal registration of the DANIELE trademark, Opposition No. 91154652.

The parties also wish to resolve and dismiss the complaint and counterclaim presently pending in the United States District Court, District of Rhode Island, C.A. No. 03-512ML.

The parties therefore agree as follows:

1. The Consorzio shall not oppose or challenge the right of Daniele to use the name "Daniele, Inc." anywhere on the packaging for prosciutto sold anywhere in the world on the condition that the name Daniele, Inc. is not immediately followed by the word "prosciutto" and on the condition that the name Daniele, Inc. is in letters that are no larger than one-fourth the size of the letters of a different word trademark (such as CLASSICO or PRESIDENTIAL SELECT) used on the packaging. On such prosciutto packaging, Daniele shall have the right to use the word "prosciutto" as a goods description, but shall not have the right to use the word "prosciutto" immediately following the name "Daniele, Inc." On such prosciutto packaging, Daniele shall not have the right to use the name "Daniele International" or "Daniele International, Inc." or any name which includes the two words "Daniele" and "International."

2. Daniele shall not oppose or challenge the right of the Consorzio to use the name San Daniele or the trademark PROSCIUTTO DI SAN DANIELE in connection with the sale of prosciutto in the United States.

3. The Consorzio shall not oppose or challenge the right of Daniele to use the DANIELE trademark on the packaging for any meat products, except prosciutto, sold anywhere in the world.

4. Daniele shall cease all use of the DANIELE word trademark and all use of the name "Daniele" in every way, shape and form, on packaging for prosciutto sold in the United States or in Europe, except as permitted under Paragraph 1 hereof.

5. Except for goods that Daniele imports from outside the United States and serves as distributor within the United States, Daniele shall prominently indicate on all prosciutto labels and in all prosciutto advertising and marketing materials that its goods are made in the United States.

6. Daniele shall not, after the effective date of this agreement, print or reprint any advertising or marketing materials, or make any written or oral representations, which state or imply that Daniele's goods are made in San Daniele, Italy, or that such goods comply with the standards of the Consorzio, or that Daniele is in any way connected to or affiliated with the Consorzio, or that the Consorzio or anyone in San Daniele, Italy has authorized or approved goods sold by Daniele. To the extent that any advertising or marketing materials currently exist within the control of Daniele which do not comply with the undertaking contained in the previous sentence, such materials will not be used by Daniele after January 31, 2005.

7. To ensure compliance with the preceding paragraphs, for one year after the effective date of this agreement, the Consorzio shall have the right to request samples of all new advertising and marketing materials prepared by Daniele, including product labels, catalogs, Internet Web pages, and other advertising and marketing materials.

8. The parties shall endeavor to avoid confusion between their trademarks and trade names.

9. Each party shall notify the other party if it learns that a third party is using the Daniele name on prosciutto sold in the United States. In the event one of the Parties decides to initiate any legal proceeding in the United States against any third party for unfair competition or infringement of its trademark or other intellectual property rights related to its trademark, such Party will notify the other party in writing.

10. Within ten (10) days of the effective date of this agreement, Daniele shall pay to the Consorzio $40,000 (FORTY THOUSAND U.S. DOLLARS).

11. Upon payment of the $40,000 (FORTY THOUSAND U.S. DOLLARS), the complaint and counterclaim presently pending in United States District Court, C.A. No. 03-512ML shall be dismissed with prejudice.

12. Within thirty days after the effective date of this agreement, Daniele with the Consorzio's consent will amend its federal application to register the DANIELE trademark to eliminate prosciutto from the application and, subject to the entry of the consented amendment, the Consorzio will withdraw its opposition to the application with prejudice.

13. This agreement shall bind the parties and their successors and affiliates.
